

TEMPLE COLLEGE
INVESTMENT POLICY
Approved by the Board of Trustees
January 27, 2014

INTRODUCTION

This Investment Policy supersedes all other policies and has been formulated to comply with the requirements of the Texas Public Funds Investment Act, as amended and effective September 1, 1995¹. In addition to providing specific restrictions on certain types of investments, the law requires certain issues to be addressed in the investment policy and the incorporation of specific language. Compliance with the law significantly expands the Investment Policy and provides for a greater lever of detail and understanding.

ARTICLE I
PURPOSE, OBJECTIVES, AND STRATEGY

- 1.1 Purpose of Policy. The purpose of this Investment Policy is to provide the College with specific guidelines so that the return on available cash reserves in each of the funds under its control may be maximized while the risk to invested capital may be minimized.

- 1.2 Investment Objectives. Investment of funds shall be governed by the following investment objectives, in order of priority, for each investable fund listed in Article II.

 - b. Preservation and Safety of Principal – to ensure that potential capital losses are avoided whether they be from defaults or erosion of market value.
 - c. Liquidity – by structuring maturities to enable the College to meet all cash requirements which might reasonable be anticipated.
 - d. Marketability – to provide the College the ability to liquidate the investment prior to its maturity date.
 - e. Portfolio Diversification – to avoid incurring unreasonable and avoidable risks regarding specific types of securities or concentrations within individual financial institutions.
 - f. Yield – To attain the best rate of return on investments, based on the existing depository service contract and quotes received from primary government securities dealers, as defined by the Federal Reserve, for financial institutions doing business in this state.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY STATEMENT

TEMPLE COLLEGE

The College maintains portfolios which utilize four specific investment strategy considerations designed to address the unique characteristics of the fund groups represented in the portfolios.

Investment strategies for operating funds and commingled pools containing operating funds have as their primary objective to assure that anticipated cash flows are matched with adequate investment liquidity. The secondary objective is to create a portfolio structure which will experience minimal volatility during economic cycles. This may be accomplished by purchasing high quality, short-to-medium term securities which will complement each other in a ladder structure and investment in qualified public funds investment pools.

Investment strategies for bond proceeds shall conform to bond covenants regarding yield limitations. Primary consideration will be preservation of principal and liquidity. Short-term and money-market securities are the basis of this portfolio.

Investment strategies for debt service funds shall have as the primary objective the assurance of investment liquidity adequate to cover the debt service obligation on the required payment date. Securities purchased shall not have a stated final maturity date which exceeds the debt service payment date.

Investment strategies for debt service reserve funds shall have as the primary objective the ability to generate a dependable revenue stream to the appropriate debt service fund from securities with a low degree of volatility. Except as may be required by the bond covenant specific to an individual issue, securities should be of high quality, with short-term to intermediate-term maturities. Volatility shall be further controlled through the purchase of securities carrying the highest coupon available, within the desired maturity and quality range, without paying a premium, if at all possible. Such securities will tend to hold their value during economic cycles.

COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

During the twelve month period ending August 31, 2013 the College was in compliance with the strategies set forth above. No unauthorized investments were in the College portfolio at August 31, 2013. The strategy for the next quarter will remain consistent with current strategy.
