The above information tells you.....

- The name of the book
- The author of the book
- The availability of the book at the Temple College Bookstore.
- The ISBN number

Some of these books are bundled or custom books and can only be found at the TC Bookstore. Others can be found online new or used, by searching the ISBN number.

You have many choices with textbooks today. Some have e-books, most can be rented in hardcopy for the semester, and you will run into a few that are written by the instructor of the course.

Please remember the best time to get the most current textbook info, is to purchase a month before the class starts. No earlier. Books can change over summer.
